Angeleno
World Prize

The World Prize recognizes those whose exceptional contributions have significantly advanced global understanding and cooperation while promoting American ingenuity and achievement. Recipients have had profound impact on industry, innovation, human rights, philanthropy, entertainment, science, and sustainability.

The Prize highlights the importance of civic engagement, civil discourse, and an informed citizenry in order to promote prosperity and deepen democracies. They embody our values which focus on fostering peace through cross-cultural dialogue. Proceeds are dedicated to imbuing young leaders with skills that foster civic and social responsibility.

We would be pleased to have your support at this event, which will include government dignitaries, prominent business leaders and thought influencers.

Los Angeles World Affairs Council Historical Significance

Los Angeles World Affairs Council has hosted over 250 global trailblazers and international heads of state.

Distinguished guest speakers have included eight U.S. Presidents, as well as Supreme Court Justices,
Civil Rights Leaders,
Prime Ministers, Foreign Royalty and the Dalai Lama.

Los Angeles World Affairs Council The Legacy Continues

As the most venerable speaker forum in Southern California, we deliver a robust slate of programming on international, national, and regional affairs.

At center stage for ideas that shape the world, our balanced, nonpartisan programs create opportunities for audiences to engage directly with authentic voices and top decision makers in government, business, science, and civil society.

This year we celebrate 250 years of America and the importance of civil discourse and civic engagement.
